

LES GILLARD MEMORIAL SUPPORTER AWARD – NOMINATION FORM

This Award is given to a person judged to have shown the best support to the club in many ways, in honour of Les Gillard who passed away at an early age. A great club man who quietly, behind the scenes, went about doing a lot of work & maintenance without fuss or bother, never looking for accolades but every Saturday whether playing or as a spectator, would give his all for the club.

A current and financial member of the Blackwood Football Club may submit to the Executive Committee in writing two months before the AGM of the current year, a proposal for consideration & discussion for bestowing the Les Gillard Memorial Supporter Award to an outstanding person(s) who has given great support to the club in any form.

The nominator(s) will be advised in writing of the Committee's decision, followed by advice in writing to the person(s) They will be then invited to the Club's Moulden Medal Night where the award will be presented.
